

Workflow API Mode

API mode refers to a flow where the workflow controls the application ones initiated. The application API will allow workflow to access application parameters for its messaging and updating functions.

